

SPARTAN

The background of the cover is a black and white photograph of the Essex County Vocational and Technical High School building. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a classical architectural style, featuring a prominent portico with columns and a pediment. The entrance is centered and has a set of steps leading up to it. Above the entrance, the words "ESSEX COUNTY VOCATIONAL AND TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL" are inscribed. To the right of the entrance, there is a small sign with a radiation symbol. The building has many windows, some of which are open. A street lamp is visible on the right side of the building. The title "Bloomfield Tech The Spartan 1999 — 2000" is overlaid on the image in a large, bold, serif font.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Publishing this yearbook has not been an easy job. Many people do not realize the amount of time and dedication it has taken to produce this yearbook. Countless hours were spent on decision making, taking photos, selecting photos, planning layouts, typing copy, and drawing precise final layouts to meet the deadlines. You would not be holding THE SPARTAN if it weren't for the dedication of several members of the Class of 2000. Each member contributed his or her unique talents to get the job done. No matter how small or big the contribution, it is greatly appreciated by the entire Class of 2000. Special thanks to: Sophia Arce, Cristy Chaparro, Luis Colon, Javed Dennisseur, Jasmine Guevara, Roslyn Patterson, Lisette Rodriguez, Elizabeth Santos, and Daiana Zayas.
