Mr. Love
Principal

"Congratulations to the class of 2008 on a job well done. You are the first graduating class that I have had the pleasure of being your principal for all four years of your high school experience. You have truly been a remarkable group of young men and women. I feel that all of you have the potential for greatness and will go on to wonderful things. I wish you the best and keep Bloomfield Tech. in your hearts. Go mighty Spartans!"

"I wish our senior class the best that life has to offer! I hope you remember your years at Bloomfield Tech fondly and have gained information to help you in life. Try to make a positive difference in your community, with your families and friends! May god be with you always."

Remember When...

Remember when the boys basketball team and a few audience members had a full out brawl with the basketball team from NY. (crazy!)

Remember when the girls basketball team got disqualified from the playoffs. (tear)

Remember when there was a fight in our first dance freshman year and we had to stay after school in the auditorium. (omg!)

Remember when Mr. Love tried to do the Wu- Tang. (lol)

Remember when we threw water on Ms. White when we had the car wash and she got Mad-der!! (lol)

Remember when we had a blackout sophomore year and Mr. Love sent us home early.

Remember when Ms. Portera let us leave early and then everybody got in trouble afterwards. (lol)

Remember when practically none of the seniors were in school on 4/04/08. (SENIORS "08")

Remember when about 98% of the class past the English part of the HSPA. (Beastin')
