Man .....

Out of man came women,
out of their love for each other, the world began.

DEDICATION

We, the yearbook staff, dedicate this yearbook to the two people who contributed so much of their time to its preparation.

We would like to thank Mr. Kaplan for his devotion to our school in the matter of his interest in and work for our yearbook.

We extend our sincere appreciation to Miss Lehman for handling all financial work connected with the publication.

Sincerely,
The Yearbook Staff

The changing life style of women is one of our emerging trends. You are a part of the "now" generation and should assume the responsibility for making your mark on the problems facing mankind.

Your future offers many challenges and joys. The shape of your life will be molded by the manner in which you face each day, by the choices you make, and by the standards you will demand of yourself.

My sincere congratulations on your graduation, and my thanks for the privilege of being your principal. Remember to see the beautiful things in life rather than fear the shadows.

Rosalie C. Risinger

FAC

ULTY

Dear Class of 1972:

One of the hardest things we have to do in life is to say "good-bye." To be sure there are times when it isn't too bad, for instance when leaving your dentist's office, but for the most part "good-bye" carries with it the sense of leaving something behind and that's what makes it a sometimes sad experience.

But consider "good-bye" for a minute—it's only said when parting—and we are only parting when we are going somewhere else. To me it seems that "good-bye" must be said before we can say "hello" in that other place. For us here it is "Good-bye, Class of 1972"—"Hello, Class of 1973." For you it is "Good-bye, Essex High,"—"Hello, world."

All your lives you will be saying "good-bye and "hello." It is my wish for you as you graduate that you will soon learn what I have learned. The "hello" that follows makes the "good-bye" worthwhile.

And talk to us today.

Now is the best time to think about tomorrow. And decide what you'll do with all those fast-approaching days after graduation.

At New Jersey Bell, we've helped more people like you make the right decisions. With jobs they've enjoyed for years. Because they were well-trained to meet the future.

And, at New Jersey Bell, we'll always need people like you. Because we're growing fast. With lots of opportunities for you. Helping get all the calls through, seeing that customers get the service they need, or keeping our offices running smoothly.

So talk to your Guidance Counselor today. And set up an appointment at your nearest New Jersey Bell Employment Office. We can show you how good your tomorrow can be.

From The Desk of HAROLD KAPLAN

After all the work is over and your yearbook has finally "Been put to bed," the time has come to thank those people whose efforts made this possible.

My thanks to the entire yearbook staff for their time and effort. I especially like to thank those people who worked "above and beyond" the call of duty: Miss Lehman for supervising all the money, and Mr. Biglin for paying all the bills; Phyllis for her cover design; Andrea and Gail for the layouts; Mary Ann and Darlene for the advertising sales; Marie and Willie Jean for handling the money; Gloria and Marilyn for their creative ideas.

And now we come to Susan Barthel. I think the entire senior class should know that if it were not for Sue's dependability and capacity to follow through every segment of this yearbook, you would have none.

I would also like to thank those members of the faculty who cooperated during the past eight months. I truly appreciate your help. To those who were not so considerate, I am happy to say, "The yearbook is now finished anyway."

Good luck to all of you in the future.

GOOD

A bill for a case of scotch? Was that for the staff or the advisor???

Susan, you tell me one more thing and I'll cut off your hands!!!!

I told you the deadline was today!!!!

Why don't we let Mr. Kaplan make that decision!
