ATHENA
1987

*We've traveled a long, long time
together,*

And there have been a lot of good things on the way.

*But now,
it's almost time
for leavin'*

*And the things
I feel inside are very hard to say.*

*But it's time
for moving on,
my friend;*

*hold back
all the tears
and sorrow,*

It fin'ly is time to go our separate ways.

*And I want to wish you well,
my friend,*

As we search for new tomorrows.

*Go as you must, but,
please,*

Don't forget the yesterdays.

*Remember the dreams we dreamed
together,*

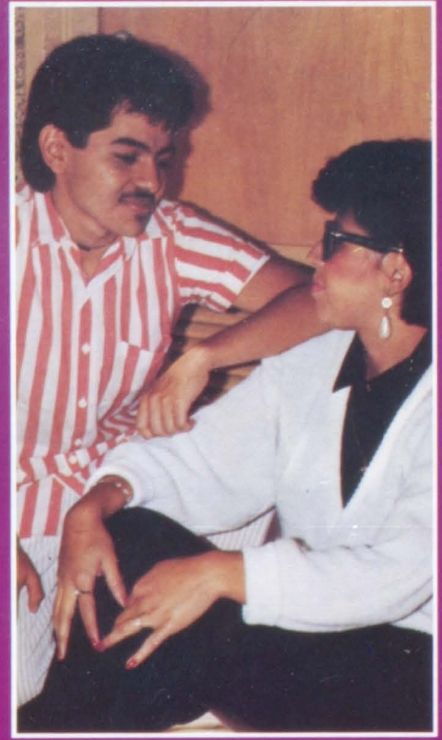

*All the joys —
we shared in getting to today.*

*Now,
just one time before
you leave me,*

*Reach out
and take my hand
— and help me walk — away.*

Administration & Faculty

Frank Polito
Principal

As other graduating classes before you, you will be going forth into the world of work with vocational and technical training that we have provided for you through a complete school program.

In this school setting, you have been given opportunities to organize and plan; assume leadership roles; gain recognition and identity; and mature emotionally and socially.

It is essential that you put to use all of your acquired learning skills to meet a complex future, one that will demand diverse skills.

It is our hope that you will go forth to make a worthwhile contribution utilizing all of your attributes.

Congratulations and my sincere wishes for success.

Dear Graduates,

Graduation from high school is usually looked upon as an end, an end to studying, tests, grades and other circumstances inherent to school. I, however, have always looked upon graduations as beginnings. In your case, graduation will signal the beginning of new life experiences, full time employment, and perhaps even further education. Hopefully, the training you have received here has helped to prepare you for what is to come.

You will be leaving here with well wishes and high hopes for success from the entire staff. If you commit yourself to doing your best, to being a responsible, productive, and caring adult, success will undoubtedly be yours.

Congratulations and Good Luck.

I Love You More Than "Love" XXXX0000

It is impossible to capture in words the feelings I have for you. They are the strongest feelings that I have ever had about anything. Yet when I try to tell you them or try to write them down to you, the words do not even begin to touch the depths of my feelings. And though I cannot explain the essence of these phenomenal feelings, I can tell you what I feel like when I am with you. When I am with you it is as if I were a bird, flying freely in the clear blue sky. When I am with you it is as if I were a flower opening up my petals to life. When I am with you it is as if I were the waves of the ocean crashing strongly against the shore. When I am with you it is as if I were the rainbow, after the storm, proudly showing my colors. When I am with you it is as if everything that is beautiful surrounds us. This is just a very small part of how wonderful I feel when I am with you. Maybe the word "LOVE" was invented to explain the deep all-encompassing feelings that I have for you. But somehow, it is not strong enough . . . but since it is the best word that there is, let me tell you a thousand times that I love you more than "LOVE." So let's fall into a pool of roses together. To Helena Araujo, best of luck in your senior year. From your boyfriend and fiance, MANNY . . . with lots of love XXXXXX.

ED & ROSALIA

3/28/86

The day we first met was the beginning of our life of love together. Just you and I, standing side by side, as we travel down life's road . . . together we'll make all our dreams and wishes come true. Though things may get tough, we know that we have each other to turn to and trust. We'll stick together through the good and bad times, and we will conquer the world. Through the years our love will grow stronger and shine like the brightest star to light our way. But most of all, I want you to know that I love you with all my heart and soul. My love for you will burn like a raging fire, now until the end of time.

*You came along when I was empty.
And all that I had was a dream,
Of a girl who I thought would always be A fantasy.
And when you filled my heart
And dried my tears,
Somehow I knew,
That after all these years,
You would be the one
To make my dream come true.
To say I'll make your dreams come true
Would be wrong.
But maybe, Donna, I could help them along.
There's something happy
And there's something sad,
About wanting somebody,
Oh so bad.
I wear my love, Donna,
Without shame.
I'd be proud if you would Wear my name.
Marry me and let the future
Be OURS.*

*Always yours,
