"GIVE ME ONE MOMENT IN TIME, WHEN I'M MORE THAN I THOUGHT I COULD BE . . . WHEN ALL OF MY DREAMS ARE A HEARTBEAT AWAY AND THE ANSWERS ARE ALL UP TO ME . . ."

Dear Graduates,

You are a very special class. You are the first to survive four years with me as your administrator. That in itself is a tribute to your perseverance and your ability to rise to the occasion. I am proud of you.

During the past four years, you have learned a number of hard lessons, academically and personally. You have had some unforgettable experiences, both positive and negative. So have I. You will always be special to me because of this shared growth at a critical time of our lives.

There will be much for you to accomplish and you will be successful if you continue to develop the skills you have already acquired. Establish your goals, dream your dreams, and strive for that "one moment in time", as I still do.

I love you dearly and I wish you the best.

With Love and Pride

Deborah S. Alexander

"YOU'RE A WINNER FOR A LIFETIME IF YOU SEIZE THAT ONE MOMENT IN TIME."

Vice Principal

Dear Graduates,

As you say good-bye to this school and open doors to a new life, there comes a time when you must say, "Well done." Fulfilling as the educational profession has been for me, there was always that feeling of wanting to give more of myself. But as one great warrior, General Douglas McArthur, stated during a withdrawal in World War II, "Old soldiers never die, they just fade away." So now that our time has come, yours into the work world and mine into retirement, we must say to each other, "Keep the faith."

If we had more to give, surely we would have done so. Now that this is the end for me, my only thoughts and words are that it has been a life-long dream and pleasure come true. There have been many jobs, but none as rewarding as school. Thank you for allowing me the opportunity of being a part of your educational experience. May all your adventures and successes (not only money) be as delightful and pleasurable as mine have been.

Congratulations,

Felix N. Villarin

MOMMY

MOMMY—I LOVE YOU

What is a "love thing" do I know?
Could it be something to help me grow?
Did I know this "thing" before I was me?
Could it even be why I happened to be?
A funny "thing" to know and this is a fact
When I give it away it hurries right back.
This "love thing" even the smallest can do—
So, to the very best Mommy—
I REALLY LOVE YOU.

NIKKI

WHAT IS A GRANDDAUGHTER?

A granddaughter is the sunshine
That brightens everyday
Turning sad times happy
In her special way.
A granddaughter is a comfort
So caring and so sweet,
A wonderful addition
Making life complete.
Granddaughters are a blessing
From heaven up above,
A gift of joy and gladness
To cherish and to love.

Nikki, WE LOVE YOU
DEE and LEO

GRANDPARENTS

No one could ever take the place
Of dear grandparents like you,
Nothing could ever warm the heart
Like the thoughtful things you do—
Nothing could change the deep respect
You're so deserving of,
And nothing compares
With the joy that comes
From having you to love.
These wishes for grandparents
Are as loving as can be
Because you mean so very much to me
They're sent with happy memories
And they're meant to tell you, too,
How very much you're thought about
And loved the whole year through!

I LOVE YOU ALWAYS

JOSEPH

Well, it looks like you have finally made it. All these years of hard work have definitely paid off for you. We never doubted your ability to strive to the top and explode as a winner.

We remember when you entered grammar school. God knows you hated it. But somewhere along the line, you started to show rapid development in your intelligence process. Not only in your intelligence, but in your sense of humor as well. From then on, it was nothing but fireworks. You graduated from grammar school with a good reputation, high honors, and plenty of friends.

The next fall you entered high school and proved that your power was lasting. You have had more spots on the honor roll than we can possibly think of. You have kept your sense of humor, strong intelligence, and your big supply of friends.

Now, when you complete your senior year, we know that there will be nothing but good things ahead for you and if anyone is so deserving of it, it has to be you. Just remember that we will always love you, support you, and be proud of you. We hope that you get everything you deserve in your lifetime. God bless you and we wish you all the luck in the world for your future endeavors.

Love always,

TO MY PARENTS

I am sorry for those long nights you spent awake worrying while I was out having a good time.
For those disappointments I have given you, and silently made you hurt.
For my inconsideration and bad talk
And all the grief and pain I have given you.
But I thank you
For understanding the things, I least expected for you to understand.
For allowing me to learn from all those mistakes I have done.
And for allowing me to grow, and become the person I am today.
Thank you Mom and Dad for being the greatest parents in the world. I LOVE YOU.

MARIA

TO MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS

I am proud to have reached the destination where I stand now I want to thank those four special friends I have, my two brothers, Choco and Angel, and my two sisters, Lucy and Lily. For always being there, working over my shoulder and for taking the time to talk to me about things I knew nothing about. There were times when they least expected that they helped me, but in the long run it all worked out for the best. And, I want to give special thanks to my older sister Lucy for bringing a new life into this world, my little niece, Brenda. I LOVE YOU ALL.

FOR MY FRIENDS

“There are those who pass like ships in the night. Who meet for a moments, then sail out of sight with never a backward glance of regret; folks we know briefly then quickly forget. Then there are friends who sail together through quiet waters and stormy weather helping each other through joy and through strife And they are the kind who give meaning to life.”

To all those special friends — you know who you are — I LOVE YOU ALL. GOOD LUCK AND LETS NEVER FORGET EACH OTHER.

SHORTY

I LOVE YOU

You have been my friend when no one else was there to take the time. You listened to the thoughts I needed to share and you tried so hard to understand. You spent your time with me, when you could have been elsewhere. And when you could have walked away you chose to stay. You understood the times when I wanted to cry but could not let go and when I wanted to laugh and play like a child, you savored my happiness. You held me in sense of security when I felt frightened or was injured inside. You made my world such a peaceful place to be in. And more than ever I owe you so much. You have given inspiration and life and I LOVE YOU.

Deborah Alexander
Principal

& Technical School
300 13th Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102

Dear Ms. Alexander:

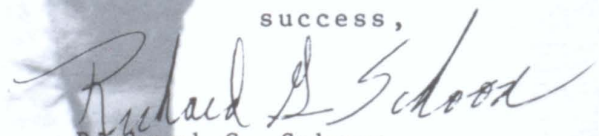

The Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce is pleased to commend the fine work of the Essex County Vocational and Technical School and the historic partnership it has established with The Chamber.

The Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce is a regional business organization, representing 2,500 members in 18 of New Jersey's 21 counties. The Chamber serves as the Metro New Jersey area's leading advocate for business issues.

The Chamber is proud of the successful program established in which students from VoTech work part time at the Chamber in various capacities. Through this effective exchange students have gained valuable work experience, while the Chamber has gained an enthusiastic and diligent supplementary workforce. The students have been exceptional, and many of them have achieved great success upon graduating from the program.

This is just one of the ways that VoTech works with the Metro New Jersey community to fill a vital role. We are proud of your continuing commitment to excellence in the education of our area's students.

success,

A special love I hold for my mother (Cynthia Foushee) is deep inside of me. My granddaddy (Morris Foushee) is a man who is lovable and crazy, but he is very special.

My auntie (Irma Callendar) and my uncle (Callendar) has made a difference in my life at this point in time and I appreciate their support and guidance.

Out of my entire family Susan Foushee, my grandmother, is very special to me. I thank her for her love, support, guidance, knowledge and her opinions. Also for spoiling me more than any child could ever be. I love you grandma.

Above all I thank God for my life and good and bad of it.

This page is dedicated to all those who have helped me get here. It's been a long, long, long 12 years in my life but, with parents and friends like the ones I have, it made it a lot more enjoyable.

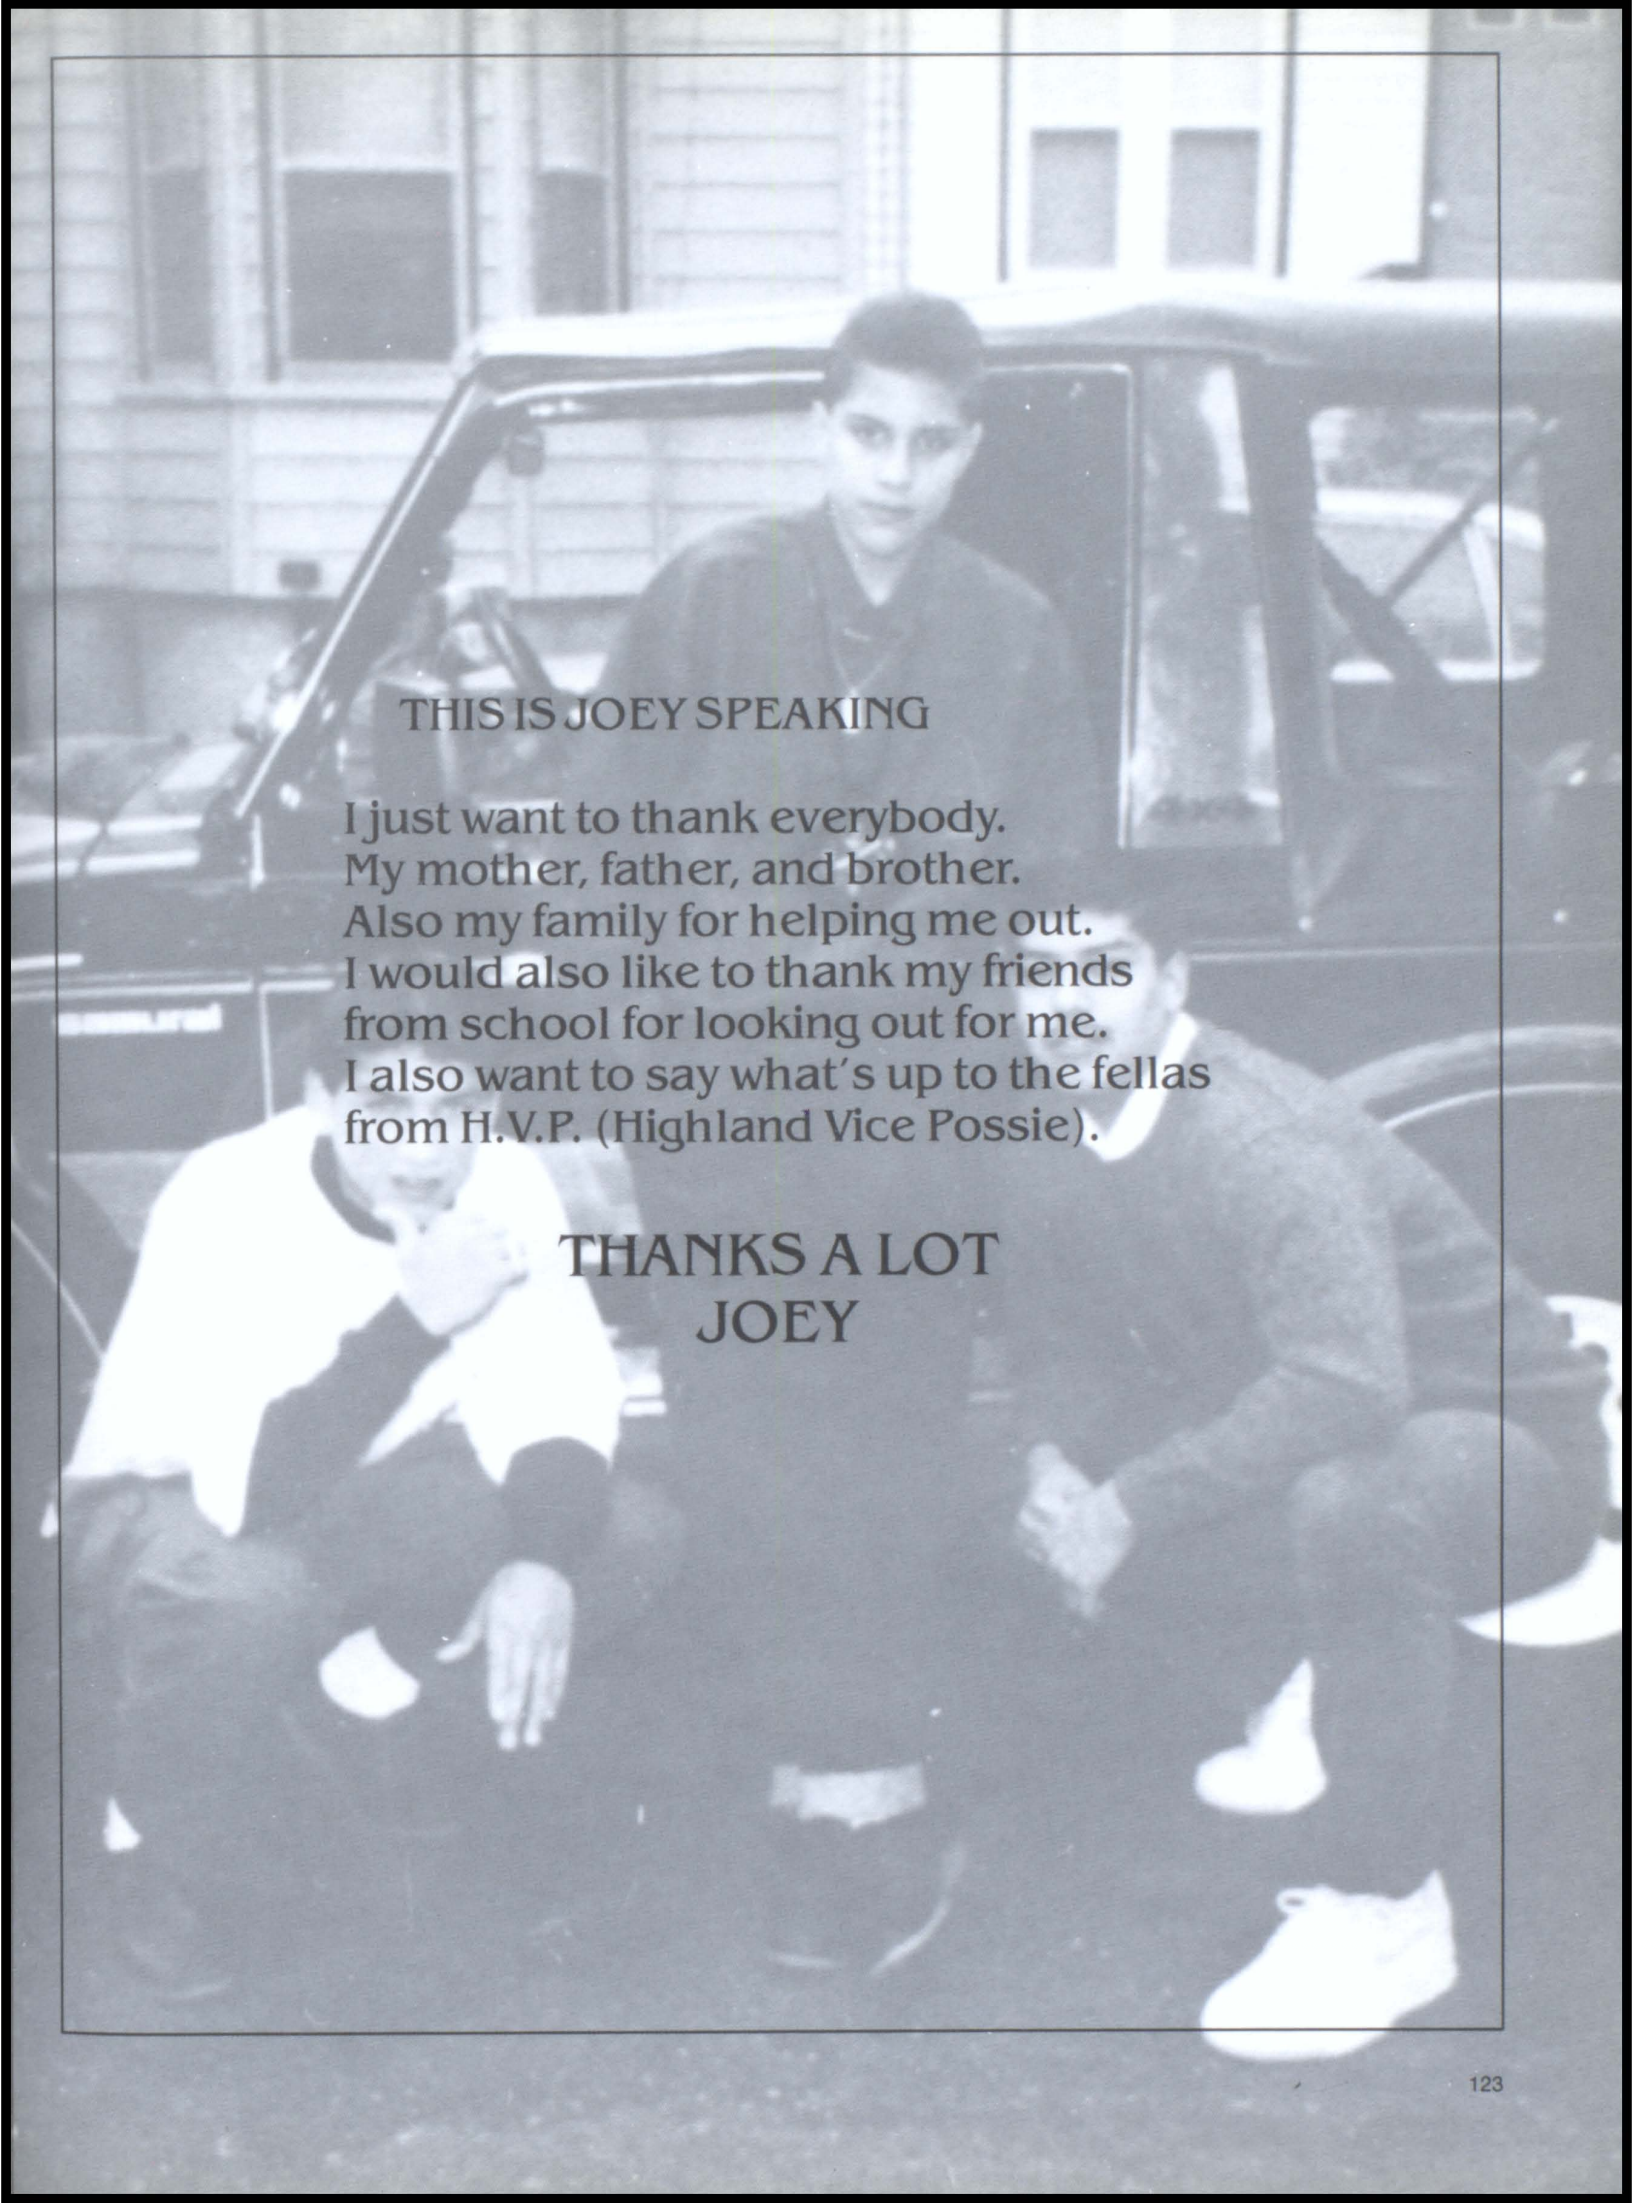

Thanks Mom and Dad and my little sister for all the support you have given me in the past it has finally paid off for something.

Thanks to all the teachers who have made those 45 minutes fun. (Don't all of you pat your backs). And to my friends who have never let me down — thanks.

Most of all to the class of 1989 the last of its kind, it has been great. We had fun, didn't we. Don't ever forget — we are the greatest.

Love,

You are what every mother would want in a daughter. You are loving, understanding, and everything nice. You know what you want in life and you try so very hard to make it happen. I have enjoyed watching you. I have watched you progress every year from the first year of school, and to see you, each year of school made me feel very proud of you watching you turn into a teenager and being a teenager is an experience of its own. ## TO THE DIVINE CLASS OF '89

I feel that it is time for me to dedicate these rhymes
We have had our racial slurs and foes
When you mix races together, that's usually how it goes
But as we acquired, knowledge
The kind you can't find in college
We wanted to have peace
So we got together and violence ceased
So to all the undergrads remember
What kept us strong
And for you nothing can go wrong
And to all the educators and staff
I know that you will be upset
When you have to face the reality that we left
But make peace the topic you discuss
And maybe they will turn out as good as us
I am so glad I had this time to be heard
This is the end and my conclusion Word

A FRIEND

If you feel all alone
Don't you fear my friend
I am here, I will care, till the end.
When your friend seem to be
Your worst enemy
I will stand, I'll be there, I'll defend.
And if you have no where else to turn to come to me I will hold and comfort you
Let me be all you need,
All you need is a friend
When you're down and you're out
Seems like the whole world casts you out.
Come to me I said I'd be
That special friend
No matter what the time of day
All you do is just say "Hey"
I need you to talk to, hold me,
Close right now today.

TO CHIPPY

To one of my best and closest friends. Chips we made it. To someone who has treated me like a sister. Who I love like a sister and who will always be my best friend and part of my life. Chippy words cannot explain the friendship we share. Our friendship is different from the rest, share our true feelings and we don't deceive one another. Thank you and your family for always being there when I needed help, advice and support. I LOVE ALL OF YOU.

TO PURRI

To a friend that has been with me for a long time. Thank you for the years we have shared. And most of all I thank you for being there when I needed you. Words do not say enough to say that I LOVE YOU and I will always be there for you. Never forget the times we shared together. Even though sometimes I let you down, but I am sorry for those times. Remember that I will always love you and I will never forget you.

DEAR CHIPPY

I hope when you receive this letter you are better awoken than I am. You see I always had this problem of running into places where I wasn't wanted or was it just a game you played and you made it seem real. But as I reached my goals I find it succeeded but not that I earned it; it was there already for somebody else. Why do you put people before me? Do I drive myself to do that? I am my own person but my emotions are driven to be taken more than once. But you, you run out on my feelings, expecting them to follow you. Are you afraid of them. Are they too much for you. They have been with me through good times and they made me feel good but you come at my worst days, I feel 2 feet again. How can I strive for LOVE??

That's my way of playing games. You win one you lose one, what will it be. Will I be your shadow again. I need you my strength, you were all I had to lift my spirits. You were my power, I was your key. You unlock my door and left me there with nobody to understand me, why are you back feelings? If you can't support and understand me, then why have you returned.

RESPONSE OF THE FRIEND

I have returned because you are a part of me and without you, I am no one. I understood and I will accept life the way it should be. Then if it turns out that way, why do you have attitude feelings. You get mad at the smallest things. No, it is part of the mind, not me. Accept ever feeling and you will be happy because my world and yours will be rocking the same boat. Evan as Fair.

The lighting is bright, typical of a clinical setting.

I will always remember you and what we shared.

"WE ARE ONE"

I am in love with you, you are in love with me. We are two people, but together we share one life, a life dedicated to loving one another.

We are two individuals, but inseparable from each other by choice.

We can be apart and know we are always in the other's heart.

We can each do our own thing, but know that the thing we do best is love one another.

We could accomplish much by ourselves, but what we accomplish together is much more meaningful to us and our love for one another.

We are two wills inspired by a spirit of mutual respect and a sense of obligation to make our lives as great as love can make us be.

And though we are two separate identities, we are one in mind and body, and in heart and soul.

I LOVE YOU, DARLING

“DREAMS ARE JUST DREAMS”

Are dreams just dreams?
Do they really come true?
My answer to this is yes.
I chose a special girl to be my friend;
and guess who it is; just guess.

Yes, you are right, It's You!
And upon meeting you is a dream come true,
which for me means a lot since we share the dream that is steadily becoming reality.

As we prepare for the future,
We learn from the past.
As we live our lives to the furthest
extension of life,
We grow together as a bond.
Our love will be as solid and stable
As both together working as one.

Love For Ever

Rose,

The day we met, something inside me changed. I don't quite understand it but I do know the change is because of you. It is such a good feeling that I hope it never ends. Relationships are never easy and you and I had our share of struggle times but together we made it. We didn't let go. You're so different so unique compared to all those others in my life. What a change you have made. It is as if your soul has reached out and touched mine. I feel magic inside like I never felt before. When you first spoke I listened to every word so I could remember every word you said. When you held my hand your touch was so gentle that I wouldn't have known it was there if I had not felt your sincerity.

When you're with me, I feel so warm inside that I sometimes think I can feel you holding me, when all you are doing is looking in to my eyes. The security that I feel when you're around me makes me think that I have nothing to fear. I can be with you all day and all night, and when we say good bye I do nothing but look forward to the next time we are together. No one in my life has ever made me feel the way you make me feel. I have learned with you what real love is.

Rose I love you and I will always stand by you in whatever you do.

I love you,
Maurice

When I came to my senses I had realized that I was without you, and I can truly say that I was more than blue. My heart was empty and my soul was bound just the thought of your not being around. One day we will both open our eyes can't you see you and I were meant to be. Just to about the pain and misery I put myself through, just because I am without you.
