Class of 1997

I'm a "SENIOR!"

What's up Girl!
 Even though your gone
 Your senior class has carried on.
 We dedicated this year to you
 Because in our hearts your friendship is true.
 We know you would want it no other way but;
 For all of us to march down the aisle on the special day.
 So make sure you look down on us from heaven
 Give us your blessings and Rejoice for your class of '97
 Michelle S.

Tatiana we miss you very much and to show that we are dedicating this year to you. R.I.P.

Olivia M.

me know that you were a wonderful person, and always will be.

Shantae H.

Tatiana I really miss the times we shared. You were so sweet and always there to lend a helping hand. I am going to miss you always.

Kakisha G.

I will miss you, Tatiana. I hope to see her again in the future. She was a nice person.

Kassandra N.

Even though our time was limited I discovered that you were a very sweet person, who was always there to help.

Noelia L.

Tatiana, you kept us laughing whenever you were there, and it was sad when you weren't around. Just know you are missed deeply and always in my mind and heart.

Kim P.

Tatiana was a sweet, caring girl. May her soul rest in peace. Everyone will remember her sweet days. R.I.P.

Ednita Q.

Tatiana was a person of many lights. She always had a smile and was very easy to talk to. You'll always have a place in my heart.

Alissia H.

Even though Tatiana is not with us she will never be forgotten. She is at her resting place in heaven. Eventually in time we will rejoice with her. See you at the Crossroads.

Monique C.

Tatiana, the memory of you, your smile and kindness lingers on in our minds. The thought of you not being here with us really hurts but we know and feel safe that God is watching over you. Just remember we love you and you will always be in our prayers.

Sherri S.

The times we shared will always be remembered. You are forever in my heart.

Erica C.

Tatiana we miss you very much. We weren't that close but, your still in my heart.

Toi W.

Tatiana was the type of person who was always there when you needed her. You'll always be remembered.

Latonya S.

Even though we were not fully acquainted, the joy you brought me from your bubbly personality was enough to let

I miss you, and so does everyone else. You may be gone, but not forgotten.

Shahidah H.

I think of you like an angel. Angels are timeless, they never go away.
 It is only me that's down or lost, you are here to stay.
 So when I get those times of loss, despair, or lack of hope,
 I think of you, Tatiana, a little angel for happiness to invoke.
 Iyiesha W.

"A Loving Dedication to One of Our Best"
TATIANA M. WILLIAMS
(12-79 to 7-95)

YOU HAVE LEFT A LOVELY MEMORY, A STORY TO BE TOLD;
BUT TO US WHO LOVED AND LOSS YOU, YOUR MEMORY WILL NEVER GROW
OLD. NO ONE KNOWS THE BITTER PAIN THAT CAME UPON US ALL, WHEN GOD
REACHED OUT HIS LOVING ARMS AND SOFTLY CALLED YOU HOME.

WE ALL LOVE AND MISS YOU.

SENIOR PROJECT

Some hiked, some played, some even got lost, but all of the seniors seemed to have a great time at the senior picnic. The picnic was held at Turtle Back Rock on September 27.

The Seniors spent the day doing such things as the three-legged race, won by Dennise Santiago and Jennifer Carrillo, and the egg toss, won by Juan Aponte and Paula Correia.

The picnic was a great start to the Senior Year.

REMEMBER WHEN

Marissa wore her own hair.

When Chino wore bifocals.

Olivia wore a belly sweatsuit with shoe boots.

When Marissa, Olivia, Terrell, Monique, and Dina got lost in the woods at the senior picnic and the cops brought them back.

Dina's hair for the graduation pictures.

Price got hooked by littl Ralph.

Sephora got jumbo waves.

The funnel cake fell on Tweety's head on the way back from Great Adventures

Mr. Weisman was dancing at the 70's party.

Kakisha wore those yellow sweat socks with those Frankenstein shoes.

Price had to get on the bus with his socks on.

Carmen Perdomo poured milk on Jenny Castillo's head.

The bus broke down on the way back from Washington.

LAST WILL

- I, Catherine Adorno, leave the underclassmen the teachers of No. 13th to deal with.
- I, Daniel Amoresano, leave my tardiness and Saturday detentions to the underclassmen.
- I, Dina Araujo, leave my crazy ways to all the shorties in the '97.
- I, Wandaly Arroyo, leave my ability of losing pens every second to my underclassmen.
- I, Monique Carloni, leave my flirting skills along with my class flirt "title" to the underclassmen (if they can handle it).
- I, Jennifer Carrillo, leave my ability to be tolerant because if you think H.S. is bad, just wait until college gossip!
- I, Erika Colon, leave my pity and sympathy to the underclassmen because they're gonna have to put up with more than what the Class of '97 did.
- I, Fabiola Cordero, leave my outgoing & beautiful personality to put up with the crazy underclassmen.
- I, Lenny Corro, leave a big huge kiss to Melissa, Emily, & Brunilda because they've been there for me.
- I, Maria DeLeon, leave my passes to Mr. Filipello's next history class.
- I, Yafiyra DeLeon, leave my self-confidence and knowledge to the next class of seniors.
- I, Quynna Franklin, leave my charm, wit, and charisma to the underclassmen.
- I, Jadira Garced, leave my inner and outer beauty to the female underclassmen.
- I, Reina Gonzalez, leave a statement: "Don't give up hope, underclassmen! We'll get out . . . one day!???"
- I, Kakisha Greene, leave my good looks, outspokenness, activeness, one of my weaves, and my power to put up with phony people to the underclassmen. P.S. I will miss all of you!
- I, Alisha Hall, leave my ability to get out of the deepest trouble ever, no matter what. I also leave my weirdness to all normal students.
- I, Omar Hameen, leave the ability to find good in just about anything or anyone!
- I, Shantae Hargrove, leave my ability to be sociable with everyone.
- I, Al-Shahid Hillman, leave my craziness to the underclassmen.
- I, Jose Mendez, leave my cleverness to the underclassmen, & for the baseball team, I leave my record of 35 stolen bases in 1 year & my 69 consecutive stolen bases. I'm out! ONE-LOVE!!
- I, Deon Mitchell, wish to be successful at whatever I do.
- I, Rocio Vanessa Ortiz, don't leave my Sexiness to all those who envy me, but I do leave my . . . "convinced provocativeness" to all those who want me.
- I, Edwin Pastewski, leave my stressed-out teachers to the next seniors.
- I, Kevin Peart, leave all the school books, homework, and reports to the underclassmen.
- I, Darlene Peña, leave my shortstop position to the next best player.
- I, Marisol Ramirez, leave my attitude and ability to argue with anybody.
- I, Ineabell Ramos, leave my everyday carton of chocolate milk for the underclassmen to enjoy.
- I, Magdiel Rubiano, leave my humor to all the teachers and the underclassmen that needs it.
- I, Maticel Sanchez, leave my pity and sympathy to the underclassmen.
- I, Barry Sanders, leave my good looks to whoever wants them.
- I, Luz Soto, leave my Pepsi to the underclassmen.
- I, LaTonya Spinner, leave much love for Tatiana, R.I.P., and a broom so they could sweep these dirty hallways and classrooms.
- I, Iyiesha Watson, leave my knowledge and my class to the underclassmen.
- I, Nuria Torres, leave my smile and charm behind.
- I, Susana Vega, leave my friendliness to the class of '98.
- I, Sephora White, leave in memory of Tatiana Williams, my love, for Ms. Martin, a sweater that fits, and I extend my appreciation to my 2nd mother, Ms. Walker.

Farewell to James D. Southers

On behalf of the Senior Class, we dedicate our 1997 Yearbook to Principal James D. Southers for his tireless efforts in helping us, not only receive an outstanding education, but also allowing us to enjoy our years here at N. 13th St. School. We congratulate Mr. Southers for his accomplishments, and thank him for his support.

Mr. Magazzi's Small Engine Repair Shop presented Mr. Southers with a shop jacket, in recognition of his retirement.

His cooperation has resulted the Class of '97 to become . . .

Anthony Rosato is the CEP Coordinator. He has worked at ECTVS for three years helping students find jobs. Placing students in their career field gives them on-hand job experience. He consults with many companies where he places the Seniors in the CEP Program. Many students remain in their companies after school. This is a very rewarding job to see students gain experience and mature on the job training.

ORGANIZATIONS

Health Occupation Students of America

Health Occupation Students of America is a national organization which supplements and compliments the health occupations education curriculum. HO-SA provides students in secondary, post-secondary, and collegiate programs with opportunities to develop personal, leadership and career skills needed by health care providers.

Student Council

Fabiola Cordero
Treasurer

Kakisha Green
President

Jeanette Batista
Secretary

Student Council is an organization that all students have an opportunity to participate in. We organize various school activities for the student body. An example: Valentine Party Ethnic Programs Awards Assembly for student honors etc.

F.B.L.A. is a business-oriented club that influences students to act business-like. It prepares students for the transition from school to work. It holds fundraising activities to collect funds to feed the homeless and go on educational trips. Members attend state competitions for different types of business courses.

FACULTY

To the Class of 1997:

Graduation from high school represents one of the most important rites of passage. It is a time that society expects you to shed all of the foibles of adolescence and to embrace all of the responsibilities that are associated with adulthood. It is my sincere hope that, at least in some small way, your experiences at the Essex County Vocational High School, North Thirteenth Street Campus will help facilitate one of life's most important transitions. I strongly urge you to joyously celebrate your wonderful accomplishment, and I earnestly hope that graduation will represent the beginning of a lifetime of achievement. Challenge yourself to make a difference!
